

UNERA International Fee & Stipend Scholarship

The UNERA International Fee & Stipend Scholarship is funded by the University of New England and provides tuition fees and a living allowance stipend to top quality international candidates who wish to enrol in a doctoral degree at the University.

The current scholarship round opens on 19 August 2014 and closes on 30 September 2014. Applications are extremely competitive and are assessed on academic merit and research potential.

The main objectives of the UNERA International Fee & Stipend Scholarship are to:

- attract top quality international postgraduate students to areas of research strength in the University of New England; and
- support Australia's research effort by enhancing research capacity in areas of strategic importance.

Eligibility

To be eligible for UNERA International Fee & Stipend Scholarship, you must:

- Be an international student commencing full time internal enrolment in a three-year doctoral program at UNE.
- Be a student undertaking study in a subject area identified by the University as within its designated five thematic research priorities.
- Not hold a research qualification regarded to be equivalent to an Australian Research Doctorate degree.
- Not be receiving other scholarships for which course tuition or a living allowance is being provided.

Stipend

AU$25,392 (2014 rate) per annum tax free for full-time internal students, paid in fortnightly installments.

Maximum Duration

Three years full-time for a doctoral degree.

How to Apply

To apply, please complete the International Student Scholarship Application Form. Please indicate on the form that you are applying for a UNERA International Fee & Stipend Scholarship. Applications are only accepted during advertised Scholarship Round dates.
