

Psychology

The following is a list of some of the jobs available to graduates with an Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC) accredited three-year sequence in Psychology. It has been compiled from reports of people who were employed on the basis of their three-year degree, and from Graduate Destination data.

- Family Services Officer – State Government
- Child and Family Therapist (Child Protection) – Lifeline
- Youth Justice Officer – State Government
- Community Road Safety Officer – Local Government
- Learning Support Personnel – State Education
- Community Support Co-ordinator – Health and Community Services
- Trainee Manager – private enterprise
- Team Leader – Federal Government Departments
- Counsellor – Health and Community Services
- Human Resources Manager – private enterprise
- Human Resources Trainee – legal firm
- Probation Officer – State Courts
- Assessment Officer – Corrective Services
- Youth Worker – Government Funded Project with Salvation Army
- Job Placement Officer – Community Welfare
- Social Welfare Officer – State Government
- Project Manager, Mental Health Project – State Government
- Rehabilitation Counsellor – State Government Instrumentality

For more information about Psychology at UNE, visit our website:

www.une.edu.au/psych