

Better than ever 2010 TEACHING SCHOLARSHIPS

ARE YOU READY TO SHAPE THE FUTURE?

If you've been thinking about a teaching career, there's no better time to take the first step – with the NSW Department of Education and Training's 2010 Teacher Education Scholarships offering even better incentives, including increased financial assistance and a guaranteed job after graduation.

This year, there are 300 scholarships on offer for talented students to train as teachers in science, maths and English and primary or secondary special education.

Of these, 80 will be available exclusively for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander students to train as teachers in primary or any secondary teaching area.

As a scholarship holder, you will receive:

- up to $5,000 annual allowance
- a guaranteed job in an agreed location when you graduate
- $3,000 when you begin permanent teaching
- plus, you may be eligible for the HECS-HELP benefit from the Commonwealth Government.
