Hi All!
Welcome back to another fantastic year at Earle Page College for 2009!
Last week we started off with O'Week, welcoming 106 new Freshers to Page, and what a week it was! Luckily for the Freshers, it stopped raining temporarily on Sunday for them to move in, but from then on it was non-stop action; rain, hail or shine! Monday night was Trivia Night, with newspaper costumes, and for Gerro's only, Quarantine. Tuesday saw Tuesday Night Games, introducing to college some of the best dance moves we've seen in a while, and some pretty awkward moments that involved apples and oranges... Wednesday night was Fresher Bash and Bowling. Need I say more? Thursday saw SFK Games. I'm sure Moxey, our Convenor was scouting for new talent. And Friday, college was infiltrated by another 140 people—who they are we may never know :P Though Toga Party proved to be the best way to get to know them. Saturday welcomed knee slappin' Bush Dance and the start of the Inter College Sports Competitions with Swimming Carnival. I hope you're all ready for another big year at Page!
And Gerro's, be kind to the Freshers, they are new after all... at least for the first few days.
See you around College!
