

PROFESSIONAL HISTORIANS ASSOCIATION (NSW) PRIZE 2010

ATTENTION ALL SECOND AND THIRD YEAR HISTORY STUDENTS!!!

The Professional Historians Association (NSW) will award $500.00 for the best project or essay relevant to Public or Applied History submitted for examination in a second or third year undergraduate history course at UNE in 2010.

Public or Applied History is a distinctive practice which seeks to engage with and inspire diverse audiences. Encompassing a range of methods and media, including oral history, written accounts, film and radio documentaries, websites and exhibitions, it addresses such subjects as the history of places, families, communities, institutions, popular movements, heritage sites, monuments and objects.

For ideas on careers in history visit the PHA (NSW) website <www.phansw.org.au>

Further details available from Dr Janis Wilton, School of Humanities, UNE
Phone: 6773 2107, email: jwilton@une.edu.au.

Image: Country women's conference, 1938, courtesy State Library of NSW.