

WARNING

Birds swooping!

Magpies are nesting in this area. If you come too close they may attack.

Magpies (Gymnorhina tibicen) may defend their nest by attacking people or animals. Because they are hesitant to attack if they think they are being watched, they usually swoop from behind. Holding a branch above your head or wearing a broad-brimmed hat with glasses perched on the rim facing backwards will usually deter attack.

