

Lecturer in Mathematics Education

School of Education

Selection Criteria

Essential Criteria

1. A doctoral qualification in mathematics education.
2. Successful experience teaching mathematics at the primary or secondary levels.
3. Knowledge of key research, theories, policies and practices in Mathematics Education, including current trends, challenges and reforms.
4. Capacity to contribute to research teams, postgraduate supervision along with the development of courses and units.
5. Demonstrated capacity to teach at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels, including on-campus, off-campus and online modes.

Desirable Criteria

1. Familiarity with issues in rural and regional education.
2. Awareness of ICT applications in Mathematics Education.
3. An emerging record of scholarly presentations and publications.