

School of Behavioural, Cognitive and Social Sciences

LECTURER/SENIOR LECTURER IN CRIMINOLOGY

Further Information

More information about the Discipline of Sociology and Criminology at UNE can be found here: (<http://www.une.edu.au/bcss/sociology>).

Senior Lecturer

Essential Criteria

1. A PhD in an area relevant to the criminology program at UNE.
2. Experience relevant to the teaching of Criminology at a university level.
3. Demonstrated research trajectory in the general area of criminology.
4. Established ability to attract research grants.
5. A sound record of scholarly publication including papers in refereed journals.
6. Experience in the supervision of research higher degree students.
7. Capacity to contribute to research teams.

Desirable Criteria

1. Experience relevant to distance education.
2. Research trajectory in line with the direction of the criminology program at UNE.
3. Ability to teach on-line using a program like Blackboard.
4. Experience in curriculum development.
5. Willingness to orient teaching and research to rural issues.
6. High level administrative skills.

Lecturer

Essential Criteria

1. A PhD in an area relevant to the criminology program at UNE.
2. Willingness to develop teaching skills at university level.
3. Evidence of capacity to attract external research funding.
4. Demonstrated research trajectory in the general area of criminology.
5. Capacity to contribute to research teams.

Desirable Criteria

1. Experience relevant to distance education.
2. Ability to teach on-line using a program like Blackboard.
3. Willingness to orient teaching and research to rural issues.
4. An emerging record of scholarly presentations and publications.
5. Experience in curriculum development.
6. Demonstrated administrative skills.