

UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND

Senior Lecturer/Lecturer in English & Literacies Education School of Education

Senior Lecturer

Essential Criteria

1. A doctoral qualification in a relevant field of study.
2. Professional experience relevant to the education of students in primary or secondary school contexts.
3. Knowledge of key research, theories, policies and practices in English and Literacies Education, including current trends, challenges and reforms.
4. A sound record of scholarly publication including papers in refereed journals.
5. Experience in the supervision of research higher degree students.
6. Evidence of capacity to attract external research funding.
7. Demonstrated success in tertiary teaching.

Desirable Criteria

1. Experience relevant to distance education.
 2. Experience in secondary school English education.
 3. Capacity to contribute to teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL) education or Language other than English (LOTE).
 4. Familiarity with issues in rural and regional education.
 5. Awareness of theoretical and practical issues in multimodal literacies.
 6. ICT applications in English and Literacy education.
-

Lecturer

Essential Criteria

1. A doctoral qualification in a relevant field of study.
2. Professional experience relevant to the education of students in primary or secondary school contexts.
3. Knowledge of key research, theories, policies and practices in English and Literacies Education, including current trends, challenges and reforms.

Desirable Criteria

1. Experience relevant to distance education.
2. Experience in secondary school English education.
3. Capacity to contribute to teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL) education or Language other than English (LOTE).
4. Familiarity with issues in rural and regional education.
5. Awareness of theoretical and practical issues in multimodal literacies.
6. ICT applications in English and Literacy education.