

Robbers Newsletter

Edition 13 , October 7th 2004

Reminders

Please do not leave your clothes in the drying room for longer than necessary, as they are getting stolen!

Valedictory Dinner

Those who are graduating please let the office know, so arrangements can be made for the dinner.

Relay for Life

This is a fundraiser for the Cancer Council, and they need our support. It's a continuous walk for 24hours, and Robb has entered a team. We need people to carve up the track. Events are on all day. Its on 10am Sat 16th @ Armidale showground.

$11 – you get a t-shirt, however, if you like, just come down and support. Please place name in the dining hall, or you can just turn up on the day. If you are @ the Rugby dinner, then you can still run in the morning..... get in and have an Aussie go.

See Hannah for details.

Relay for Life

The annual Rugby Dinner is on Saturday 16th of October. If you would like to go, hit up one of the boys for a date. It's a great night, with plenty of prizes, a few beverages and an exciting meal. There are plenty of awards to present. The guest speakers will be Mr Robb McCollege and the manager from the Olympic cycling team. It's Mr McCollege's last opportunity to speak, before heading off to the Homeland, so take the opportunity to say goodbye!

Its $40 for a meal, beer and wine and a great night @ the Armidale Bowling Club.

Buses depart college @ 6.45pm

Please RSVP to Stu Moncrieff x1709 by the 8th.

Quote of the Week

Common sense is the collection of prejudices acquired by age eighteen.
