Returning Students

If you intend on returning to Robb in 2005, you must fill in an application form that is available online.

Valedictory Dinner

Valedictory Dinner will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) night and everyone is expected to attend. If you cannot attend a letter of apology must be submitted to George by tomorrow lunchtime. Kegs will be held afterwards, so have a great night and congratulations to our valedictorians as they leave us to begin their new lives. Dinner is at 6, for a 6.30 start with dress being Black Tie.

JCR President and Vice President Positions.

Nominations for these positions will be closing October 26th. Everyone is encouraged to apply as it may be you leading Robb into another successful year!!!

Relay for Life

Over the weekend over 15 Robbers participated in the New England Relay for Life, A 24 hour walk\relay event.. The aim of this event was to earn money for cancer research and awareness. A number of stand out performances were displayed especially from Speedy and Kylee Heslop, however the whole team put in a fantastic effort. Well done to all participants.

Adam Dyball.

Quote of the Week

Success means having the courage, the determination, and the will to become the person you believe you were meant to be

Netball Presentation

All netty girls should have received their invites. Please RSVP to spiff or Bridge by tomorrow evening. Come and celebrate one of the most successful years of Robb Netball. This is the BEST chick's function of the year so please come and make it a cracker of an evening.

Uni Waratahs vs Uni Reds

George White, aka The new Mr. Robb Rugby, Hugh Palmer and Franky Bill Williams represented Uni Reds in the annual match vs. Uni Waratahs. The reds were victorious, with Franky scoring an outstanding try. This game was also a trial match for the Australian Uni Squad to tour Great Britain in January. This team will be named next week. We wish the boys the best of luck and we know you will make us proud.

2nd Year vs 3rd Year Cricket

A game of cricket between 2nd and 3rd year cricket will be played this Sunday at 10am

Court Gardening Day

With a bit of extra attention, the court gardens within Robb College are now looking great. With new plants and new features the grounds look much better than what they did prior to the gardening days. Thank you to all helpers that helped to improve out their particular court.
