

Robbers Newsletter

Edition3, March 22nd 2004

RSNR 110 Important Notice

Those students studying RSNR 110, your field trip is scheduled for Sunday, 28th of March, which is Beach Day.

If you miss this field trip, and do not supply a medical certificate, YOU WILL FAIL RSNR 110! Have a good think about your priorities.

Fish -arama

If anyone believed the punkarama article last week they would expect this article to state that half the university was caught up in the fast moving fishing action at Blue Hole last Friday.

Certainly it was a much bigger and better attended event with 30 + people turning out for a fun evening of fishin' swimmin' bbqin' and coleslaw consumin'.

While no fish were caught honourable mentions go to Alex Smith- winner of the hand reel casting competition, and Computer Jimmy -winner of the coleslaw eating competition.

This Friday will see FORMAL-arama take place and we ask all interested parties to dress formal, listen to formal and attend the black tie mystery dinner.

A suggestion stubby holder is now present outside fellow Trudi's room and all are invited to have a say in the arama democracy.

This Week @ Robb

Monday 22nd

- + MB and PT 10km run @ 5pm @ Bellevue Cricket Oval
- + Netball Meeting @ 6.30pm in large JCR
- + Waterpolo @ 7pm
- + Biology workshop @ 8.30 in Irvine Centre

Friday 26th

- + PT Rugby 10's v's Duval
- + Formal-arama.

Saturday 27th

- + PT AFL
- + MB Hockey

Sunday 28th

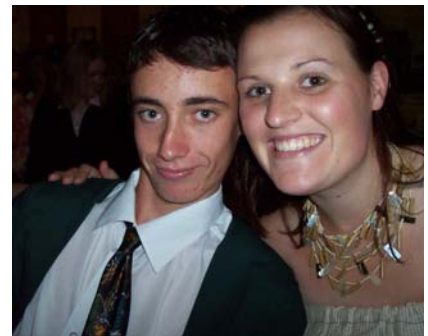

- + MB Hockey
- + Beach Day

Discounted price for members, but you are only a member if you have paid your subs!

SFK NEWS.

Hi everybody, just to let you all know that Theatre Sports will be held over the weekend 3 & 4 April. Theatre Sports is great fun to watch and loads of fun to participate in. Anyone who is interested please buzz me.

Last week Robb did well participating in the SFK Public Speaking, I have yet to find out the official results though. Well done to Adam Dyball for his effort
Cary Gardiner
WC181 x1911

Reminder : Broken Glass

If you break a window, door or fire extinguisher, report it immediately to the duty fellow and to Court Presidents. Then, CLEAN IT UP! We need to look after each other, and try to reduce some of the avoidable accidents that are occurring.

Red Shield Appeal

Thanks to all the Robbers who helped out early on Sunday morning. It was a massive effort, with lots of money raised.
Thanks, Hannah

Brent Saunders

If anyone would like to purchase the Brent Saunders book, "How dangerous men think", could you please have your $10 to Shelley (Room 106A NC) by Friday, 26th March.
Cheers.

Punch n' Lunch

Sunday saw the arrival of the long awaited court's punch and lunch day. A great day that helped to strengthen the bonds between different residents, both new and old.

Though a number of sore heads awoken this morning, the day was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Thanks to all who participated.

Court Debating

Inter-Court debating is coming up again. It will be held next week at the Buffet Dinner. Please start thinking about teams, it will be an excellent night.

City Canter

We need 10 people for a photo this week. Please see Hannah for details.

Robb Rugby

This Saturday, Robb Colts and 1sts will have trial games against the magpies in Tamworth. All support would be greatly appreciated, times TBA.

PT Cricket

The Robb boys once again had an excellent day. Robb bowled Austin out for 80, with everyone contributing to a top team performance. Knighter and Stevo steered the side to a comfortable victory, both scoring over 20 runs. This enabled Robb to get past Austin's score with the loss of only 3 wickets. Congratulations to all who played.

Rugby 10's

The boys lined up against Austin, and had a comfortable win, 43-0. A great team effort by Robb, with Frankie running in a number of tries.

5000m Track

Congratulations to Hammer and Stevo in the 5000m run. Both ran extremely strong, to allow Robb to score maximum points, with Hammer finishing 3rd and Stevo in 4th!

MB

This weekend saw the Robb tackle waterpolo and cricket for an intense weekend of sport. In the water, Robb won 3 games over Albies 17-1, Duval 10-0 and Austin 5-2. This was thanks to big efforts from Laura Macpherson, Bridget Turner and Erinn McCormick. Robb also triumphed in the last game of cricket for the season.
Thanks to all who participated.

