Edition 5, April 5th 2004

Reminders.

- All residents must sign out in the book at the office, and return your keys. If you don't do this, then you will be fined. All fees need to be up to date.
- Inner North Court residents must back up completely. There is to be nothing left in your rooms.
- All residents must pack up everything, desks, shelves and under beds. You can pack up belongings into top cupboards, but this is to be done at your own risk. The college will take no responsibility for broken or stolen goods.
- If you intend on returning early to college, please notify the office.
- Have a safe and Happy Easter and we look forward to seeing you all next term! Residents are due to return to college on the 2nd May.

All college residents are asked to keep all personal items out of the corridors of the buildings. Not only is it a breach of workplace health and safety guidelines, no responsibility can be taken for any items that may be lost.

Soccer- Arama

The weekly 'arama' themes have taken on a new realm with 'Soccer- Arama' being the first of the sporting aramas for the year. An outstanding showing of support by spectators and stongly fielded teams proved a good afternoon's entertainment.

Next term will take the 'arama' events to new levels including a few new exciting sporting challenges.

Thanks for everyone who attended and showed support for their court teams.

This Week @ Robb

Monday 5th

- ✚ RDGC Masters Final
5pm down at the course

South Court Cocktails.

Once again SC cocktails has reinforced its status as one of the most funniest nights in the college year.

Congratulations to 'Postman' Pat McCosker and Amy 'Warren' Abrahams for winning the best dressed competition.

The fashion parade boys performed well under the conditions and had all the girls on a string and congrats to Batty Boy for his inspirational words to the performers.

Matty Clark would like to offer his heartfelt thanks to those involved in irrigating the stage and the area with beer. Thanks also to the social club and the residents of South Court for helping to set up.

Quote of the Week

There is no psychiatrist in the world like a puppy licking your face.

SFK Theatre Sports

Ahoy hoy everybody.

Last night five brave members of Robb College: Emily Allanson, Aimee Brazel, Nikki Lane, Sarah Plummer, and Janelle Swney competed in SFK Theatre Sports at Lazenby Hall. They put in a top effort over the workshop and in the performance, but unfortunately they were eliminated after the interval. I would also like to thank everyone who pushed aside assignments and attended last night to cheer on Robb.

The next SFK event will be Art & Craft on 14 May. If you're interested in submitting anything please see me ASAP so you know the requirements and can work on your submissions in the holidays.

Thanks again everyone who competed and came up to see Theatre Sports.

Campus to City Canter

What an effort from Robb College! It was great to see a large group of Robbers wandering into town very early on a Saturday morning. Robb had a contingent of 60 running, and a special thanks to Gibbo and Bushy for entering their utes in the parade. We have had an excellent response from the community, thanks to all those involved.

Red Cross Doorknock Appeal

Thanks to the 25 Robbers who supported the Red Cross appeal. Over $1000 was raised thanks to your efforts. Robb has received a letter of thanks from Helen King, who coordinated the appeal.

Robb Rugby

All subs need to be paid immediately. See Leysey in Rm 121A, x1719 if you have any problems.

MB NERF

The girls came out to play on the weekend. In an effort to rival the boys rugby efforts, the girls defeated Earle Page, Austin, Mary White, Duval drew with Drummond and lost to Albies. Thanks for the amazing effort, especially Kylee Heaslop, Laura Macpherson and Ness Brennan.

PT Tennis

Robb continues to outperform the other colleges with another excellent effort in PT. The tennis players had an outstanding weekend, only dropping 3 sets. Hopefully, the boys will be overall winners, only losing to Earle Page. A great effort from the team, which consisted of Toddy, Des, Wes, Stoney, Hammer and CJ.

RDGC Masters Tournament

A leisurely Sunday afternoon golf was turned into a competitive round yesterday as players teed off for the Royal Dungeon Golf Course

Masters tournament.

The strong showing of golfers proved the skills of many, some contending for the green jacket, others just for a hit. Congratulations to all who just jumped in and gave it a go. Be sure to watch the finals this afternoon down by the course as sparks (or dirt) fly.

SHAPES fact of the Week:

In one survey, 33% of those reporting sexual harassment tried to ignore the unwanted attention. In 75% of those cases, the harassment continued or became worse.
