

UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND
Country Women's Association of NSW/Earle Page
College Equity Scholarship
Terms and Conditions

1. Introduction

The University of New England has established undergraduate scholarships to support students who have a record of academic achievement, and have been involved in leadership positions in school and the community. Some scholarships are funded by donations or grants from individuals or organisations and may include specific criteria beyond the usual University requirements.

This scholarship is provided by the Country Women's Association of NSW and is funded through the Ruth Fairfax Fund to benefit students of Earle Page College. The Scholarship is in recognition of the long-term relationship established between the Association and the College through the Annual International Study School.

The recipient will commence full-time, on-campus studies at the University of New England in an undergraduate degree program in the year following application.

The recipient must reside in Earle Page College.
