

Australian Government

Science, ICT and Mathematics Education in Rural and Regional Australia

The SiMERR National Survey

Abridged Report of Findings

Prepared for the Department of Education, Science and Training

Terry Lyons, Ray Cooksey, Debra Panizzon, Anne Parnell, John Pegg

National Centre of Science, ICT and Mathematics Education for Rural and Regional Australia

University of New England

Copyright © National Centre of Science, ICT and Mathematics Education for Rural and Regional Australia, University of New England, 2006.

This report is located at www.dest.gov.au and www.simerr.une.edu.au

Apart from any use as permitted under the Copyright Act 1968, no part of this publication may be reproduced by any means without written permission of the publisher.

You may download, display, print and reproduce this material in unaltered form only (retaining this notice) for your personal, non-commercial use and use within your organisation.

ISBN: 1 86389 998 7

This project was funded by the Australian Government Department of Education, Science and Training as a quality teacher initiative under the Australian Government Quality Teacher Programme. Website: <http://www.qualityteacher.dest.gov.au/Content/>

Disclaimer:

The views expressed in this report do not necessarily represent the views of the Australian Government Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST) or the Australian Government. The authors accept responsibility for the views expressed and all errors and omissions in this report.

Cover photographs submitted by (from L to R) SiMERR NSW, SiMERR Queensland, SiMERR NT, SiMERR WA, SiMERR NSW.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The success of any large and complex project depends upon the efforts, support and goodwill of many people, and the SiMERR National Survey was no exception. It is difficult to pinpoint reasons why individuals and groups from around Australia were willing to participate so enthusiastically in the survey. Perhaps it is because the focus is so important, so concerning and so dear to the hearts of many Australians. The authors would like to acknowledge the contributions of the following individuals and organisations:

The Department of Education, Science and Training, for funding the project through the Australian Government Quality Teacher Programme (AGQTP). In particular we are indebted to Mr Scott Lambert, Director, and Ms Anne Curtain, Assistant Director, Future Schooling and Teacher Workforce Section, Quality Schooling Branch, Schools Group.

The Department of Transport and Regional Services, for funding the ongoing work of SiMERR Australia. In particular, we wish to thank Ms Maree Cooper and Mr Des Harris, for their advice and support.

Our SiMERR National Centre colleagues:

Mr Tony Brown, Dr Lorraine Graham, Mr Russel Glover, Ms Debbie Jenner, Dr Chris Reading, Mr Greg Scott, Mrs Debbie Sozou, Ms Terry Wright.

Professor Ross Thomas (Honorary Fellow, University of New England and visiting Professorial Fellow, University of Wollongong), for his expertise in reviewing and proofreading this report.

Associate Professor Stan Bailey (Honorary Fellow, University of New England), for his extensive contribution to the literature review.

The National Survey Advisory Committee of Associate Professor Neil Anderson (James Cook University, SiMERR Qld), Ms Anne Curtain (DEST), Dr Sandra Frid (Curtin University of Technology, SiMERR WA), Mr Des Gorman (New England Regional Director, NSW Department of Education and Training), Mr Graham Hancock (Principal, Sir Henry Parkes Primary School, Tenterfield), Mr Paul Holman (Catholic Schools Office, Armidale), Mr Scott Lambert (DEST), Mrs Barbara Luelf (Isolated Children's Parents' Association), Professor Victor Minichiello (Dean, Faculty of Education, Health and Professional Studies, University of New England), Mr Will Morony (Executive Officer, Australian Association of Mathematics Teachers), and Professor Len Unsworth (University of New England).

Finally, but most importantly, to the teachers and parents/caregivers who took the time to participate in the National Survey. We appreciate your efforts and will do our utmost to ensure that this report leads to significant and effective action.

Professor John Pegg (Project Team Leader and Director, SiMERR National Centre)

Dr Terry Lyons (Project Manager)

Dr Debra Panizzon (Deputy Director, SiMERR National Centre)

Ms Anne Parnell (Project Officer)

Professor Ray Cooksey (SiMERR Design and Analysis Consultant)

May 30th, 2006

REPORT AUTHORS

Dr Terry Lyons
Project Manager and Research Fellow
SiMERR National Centre

Professor Ray Cooksey
SiMERR Design and Analysis Consultant
New England Business School
University of New England

Dr Debra Panizzon
Deputy Director
Science Education
SiMERR National Centre

Mrs Anne Parnell
Project Officer
SiMERR National Centre

Professor John Pegg
Project Team leader and Director of SiMERR National Centre