Water polo back in the deep end

THE UNE water polo competition resumed this week after a three-week break.

The well-co-ordinated Snappers beat Albies I 12-0.

Despite a lack of goals, Albies fought hard with Karen Sindenburg and Peter Hasties playing well. Scorers for Town Snappers included Damien Smith, Ian Shaw, Jason Kentwell and Victoria Brasted.

Mary White College and Duval played 6-6 draw in the best game of the round. Both teams showed great spirit and high quality play, which was reflected in the score. Chris Rowbottom, James Heath, Jared Kelleher, Ed Paterson and Amanda Torville scored for MWC, while Chris Hadden, Martina Coutts, Casey Kelly and Paul Butterworth shared the goals for Duval.

EPC Butcherbirds had a close game against Albies II, until the end of the third quarter when Albies dominated to win 7-0.

Butcherbirds played a good mid-field game with Shelley Cowling the star. Sam Montgomery started the ball rolling for Albies with Georgia Robon and Pete also contributing.

On Tuesday night TAS-PLC Trouts beat Robb White 6-5 in a tight game. Sophie Gollan, Matt Baker, Chris Baker, Lachlan Shaw and John Goggins scored for the Trouts, while Laura Macpherson was the main goal scorer for Robb with Tom Capel also contributing.

In another close game, Town Penguins beat TAS-PLC Mullets 6-1. It was a fast game with both teams strong in defence. Lachlan Shaw was the only goal scorer for the Mullets while Penguins shared their goals between Angus Adair, Nigel Kentish, Cameron Moore and Stephen Bennett.

Drummond Smith defeated the EPC Magpies 11-2. The Magpies only goal scorer Kate Bell played an excellent game, while Steve Swinsburg, Susie Beverley, Billy Bennett and Gary Knight for for Drummong Smith.

Many teams and individual players showed considerate improvement this week, ensuring an exciting season.
