☐ I have attached a research proposal of 1000 words (which should be a clear narrative of the topic, following the proposal guidelines below).

Proposed topic title:

Proposed honours supervisor* with whom you have discussed your research topic:

*NB: It is the student's responsibility to approach a member of the School of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences academic staff about thesis supervision PRIOR to submitting this application (see signatures required below).

Proposal Guidelines

Students must submit a 1000 word cogent narrative of the proposed topic, which should include:

1. A thesis statement, and/or problem to be solved, and/or question to be answered, and/or a line of argument to be explored;
2. The main thrust of the research, its central issues, and any relevant secondary concerns;
3. Why the research project is important, how it fits with existing scholarship, and how your work will contribute to knowledge in that field, and
4. A preliminary bibliography. What are the sources (primary and secondary) upon which your research will be based, and in what ways are they relevant to your proposed research topic?

Discipline Acknowledgement

The School's consideration of your application is based upon a variety of factors including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Your academic record
2. The availability of appropriate expertise in the proposed topic
3. The viability of your suggested topic

You must obtain your discipline's honours coordinator and/or proposed supervisor's signature on the admission page prior to submission - please check with your discipline. Your application will NOT be considered without this acknowledgement. (Please print and sign this application prior to scanning and returning for submission).

- ☐ By checking this box I, the applicant, understand this application is for admission to the Honours course, which is comprised of both a coursework and dissertation/project component.
