	Oorala Centre & Theatre	Stage & Activities	Museum of Antiquities
9.30am	Oorala Art Exhibition ↻
	Sea of Hands Art Installation ↻
10am		Welcome to Country
	Slideshow Oorala History	Weaving Circle Dolly Jerome ↻
		Community Canvas Lloyd Hornsby ↻
		Kids Painting ↻
10.15am		Duval Deadly Dancers
10.30am	Gallery Tour	Storytime Zone	Handling Session Bronwyn Hopwood Bookings Only Age + 10 yrs
10.45am	Cooking Demonstration Clayton Donovan	Paws Up BackTrack
11am	Slideshow Oorala History	Flint Knapping Workshop Dr Mark Moore Bookings Only Age + 10 yrs	UNE Campus Mini Bus Tour
11.15am
11.30am	Film Big Boss: The Last Leader of the Crocodile Islands	Storytime Zone	Duval Deadly Dancers
11.45am
12pm	Slideshow Oorala History		Dean Widders
12.15pm			BJ on Didge
12.30pm			Performance Isaiah Firebrace
12.45pm			Talk Artefacts Bronwyn Hopwood
1pm		Storytime Zone
1.15pm	Indigenous Oral History Lorina Barker	Flint Knapping Workshop Dr Mark Moore Bookings Only Age + 10 yrs	UNE Campus Mini Bus Tour
1.30pm	Cooking Demonstration Clayton Donovan	Roger & Buddy Knox	Handling Session Bronwyn Hopwood Bookings Only Age + 10 yrs
1.45pm
2pm	Slideshow Oorala History	Storytime Zone
2.15pm
2.30pm
2.45pm		Closing Ceremony
3pm	End of Program

↻ All Day Activity

Campus Mini Bus Tours — 45 min

10.15am | 11.15am | 1.30pm

Enjoy a tour of the UNE campus. Leave from the Oorala Centre front entrance learn about Oorala and the UNE Campus as well as a visit to the Museum of Natural History.

Cooking Demonstration — 1 hr

Clayton Donovan

Across two sessions Clayton Donovan, hatted chef and bush food evangelist with a passion and love for Australian bush tucker, will be sure to tempt you with his cooking demonstrations at the Oorala Kitchen.

Film — 50 min

Big Boss: The Last Leader of the Crocodile Islands

In this film about the importance of language, directed by Paul Sinclair, we follow 95-year-old Laurie Baymarrwangga, affectionately known, "Big Boss", who was honoured as "Senior Australian of the Year, 2012" and her single greatest achievement: the Yannhangu Dictionary.

Flint Knapping Workshop — 1 hr

Dr Mark Moore

UNE Archaeologist, Dr Mark Moore will engage with a small group to make and use stone tools to achieve a variety of tasks. If not booked into the workshop you can watch from the sidelines.
(bookings at Oorala Info Tent or by prior email to: tcullen@une.edu.au - must be over 10 yrs old)

Indigenous Oral History — 1 hr

Lorina Barker

Using multimedia to tell our stories, our way.
Lorina a lecturer in the UNE School of Humanities, will discuss some of the benefits and the 'politics' of using multimedia technologies to capture Indigenous people's voices, stories and images and the implications for Indigenous communities and researchers.

Oorala Art Exhibition — ↻ all day

Oorala Gallery & Slideshow

The Oorala Aboriginal Centre has been transformed into a gallery, the space showcasing paintings, photographs, weavings & sculptures by Indigenous artists. Including the Oorala History Slideshow (25 min)

BJ on Didge — 10 min

Community Canvas — ↻ all day

Lloyd Hornsby

Join professional artist Lloyd Hornsby Gawura and create a community canvas artwork on the day. Lloyd loves to work with community and carries on the age-old tradition of telling Dreamtime stories through art. His artwork is on show at the Oorala Art Exhibition.

Dean Widders — 15 min

Dean Widders is an Anaiwan man who played over 220 first grade NRL games and represented Country Origin and the Australian Prime Minister's 13. Dean works as the National Indigenous Pathways Manager (NRL) and has a keen interest in encouraging Indigenous youth to reach for their dreams and become positive leaders in their communities.

Duval Deadly Dancers — 10-15 min

The Duval Deadly Dancers are a talented, dedicated and proud indigenous dance group who, through working with Bangarra, enjoy performing, choreographing and teaching traditional and modern dance in the Armidale community.

- Session 1: Welcome & Leaf Dance
- Session 2: The Sapphire Dance & the Treaty Dance

Isaiah Firebrace — 30 min

Talented singer, Isaiah Firebrace, transformed from a small town singer with big dreams, to one of Australia's most successful artists winning X-Factor 2016 and going on to perform at Eurovision in 2016.

Kids Painting — ↻ all day

Oorala Info Tent

Stop by and let the younger ones paint a souvenir boomerang or fridge magnet. Good fun for the younger ones in the crowd.

Paws Up — 45 min

BackTrack

Paws Up, one of BackTrack's enterprises to engage youth, has developed into a highly successful dog high jumping team. Through the dogs, the youth connect with others and build trust, learn self-discipline while disciplining the dogs and learn self-confidence and communication skills from public performance.

Roger & Buddy Knox — 45 min

Father and son, both musicians in their own right, will perform together. Roger describes his music as "basically country with an influence of Aboriginal spirituality". The lyrics are sprinkled with references to kangaroos and pelicans and detail the struggles of Australia's Indigenous Aboriginal population.

Storytime Zone — 20 min

The Storytime Zone is a chill out area for kids, available all day where you can sit and read children's books. There are four facilitated reading sessions programmed over the day.

Walking Tour — self guided - see map

Includes the Commemorative Boulder (1986) in the Central Courtyard, a display and a Warwick Keene artwork in the Dixson Library and a visit to the Museum of Antiquities.

Weaving Circle — ↻ all day

Dolly Jerome

Ronella (Dolly) Jerome loves to teach weaving. Participants will have an opportunity to learn the traditional aspects of weaving and making string from raffia. All materials and tools supplied. The traditional uses of natural plant materials will also be discussed. Dolly's weavings feature in the Oorala Art Exhibition.

- Making String (15 min)
- Bracelet/necklace (20 min)
- Basket weaving (1-3 hrs)

Welcome to Country

Colin Ahoy, Oorala elder in residence, leads the Welcome to Country and will be joined by Kristian Sternbeck on didgeridoo and the Birabun Dancers.

Museum of Antiquities — 1 hr each

Bronwyn Hopwood

The UNE Museum of Antiquities encompasses an excellent selection of antiquities from around the world.

- Sessions 1 & 3: Handling Sessions
  (bookings at Oorala Info Tent or by prior email to: tcullen@une.edu.au - must be over 10 yrs old)
- Session 2: Antiquities Talk
  (open to all)

Sea of Hands — ↻ all day

Hosted by ANTaR

Help us cover the lawns of UNE with a Sea of Hands, one of ANTaR's major reconciliation campaigns. Created 30 years ago on October 12, 1997, at Parliament House, Canberra. Today, the hands symbolise community support for RECONCILIATION, RIGHTS and RESPECT.