

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 – Open Access Information Not Released to the Public Due to an Overriding Public Interest Against Disclosure

Section 18:

What constitutes open access information

- (f) the agency's record (kept under section 6) of the open access information (if any) that it does not make publicly available on the basis of an overriding public interest against disclosure.

Section 6:

Mandatory proactive release of certain government information

- (5) An agency must keep a record of the open access information (if any) that it does not make publicly available on the basis of an overriding public interest against disclosure. The record is to indicate only the general nature of the information concerned.
