About K-pop

South Korean Pop and K-Pop (Korean Pop, or Korean Popular Music) is called K-Pop. It is widely referred to as Korea's R & B · Hip hop dance, ballad, rock, and electronic music, are used. In 1992 , Seo Taiji and other children started to rap and dance. These activities abounded and the flow of popular music from this time was beginning to change. The current K-Pop has been derived from it. Other countries as well as foreigners residing in Korea have been enjoying this type of music since the early 2000s.

Why is there a K-pop craze?

Many people wonder why there is a K-pop craze.

K-Pop music features simple rhythms and beats that are light, easy to sing melodies. Interesting lyrics and great dance skills showcasing the choreography can be seen. Unlike western pop another feature is a greater importance placed on visual pleasures.

Sensuous fashion style, colorful dance and stage sets, entertain through the eyes .
